& Highlights from Declaration 2023

Contents

Hello TBNUK family,

This year is a really exciting one for TBNUK! For those who received our January Highlights, you'll know that we have welcomed in Graham as CEO and have been creating plenty of online content. We've been hard at work launching our Grow platform and community, launching brand new YouTube playlists, and organising helpful catch-up categories on demand for all of your TBNUK viewing.

Coming soon to your screens, we've got the brilliant Open Doors charity airing its new series, inviting us to stand in solidarity and prayer with the persecuted Church. The series will be exploring sexism, parenting, underground churches, seeking asylum, and more. Find out what to expect on pages 4-5.

Our partnership gift this month is from a very exciting 15-time Grammy Award-winning gospel singer, who has been a friendly face on recent TBNUK programmes. Can you guess who it is? Take a look on page 12.

See you in spring!

Reflecting on Psalm 2

I would not want to be on the bad side of God.

As much as He is love, He is also justice. And He takes His children very seriously. He is relentless and ferocious about defending His own. He will not allow anyone to oppress, harass, or bully them.

In the Bible, God is called the Lion of the Tribe of Judah and A Man of War – for very good reasons. Lions are at the top of the food chain and have no natural predators. Lions are fierce at protecting their pride. They patrol, mark, and guard the pride's territory. As soon as the lion realises his pride might be in danger, he leaves the pride behind and charges at the intruder, attacking him in order to keep him away from the pride. Their protective instinct is very strong.

Also, lionesses fight tooth and claw to defend their cubs. All mothers are protective of their children but no mother is more protective of their child than the lioness. As we look at the behaviour of lions, we begin to understand how the Almighty God, who created the lion species, feels about anyone or anything that comes against His children.

Take a read of Psalm 2. It teaches us that God laughs at his enemies.

He knows that they are no match for Him. Therefore, they are wisely advised to be afraid, tremble, and submit to Him in reverence.

We see this played out in Acts chapter 4 when Peter and John were threatened by the religious authorities not to speak or teach anymore in the Name of Jesus. When the disciples gathered to bring the matter to God and pray this prayer, there was a shaking in the heavens, the Holy Spirit was poured out, and they spoke with even greater boldness. This resulted in the protection and preservation of the young Church, and the propagation and proliferation of the gospel.

So be confident that whatever battle you face, God is fighting to defend you and to ensure you accomplish His purpose for your life. Run to Him for refuge.
