It's that time again. Declaration is back in 2023 with a powerful week of live worship, prayer, and testimonies, live from the TBNUK studios.

There's no better way to start the New Year than by seeking God in prayer and thanksgiving. Join us for five evenings of celebration and teaching from inspirational leaders as we boldly declare God's promises over 2023.

Dance around the living room, or as part of our live audience, as we enjoy worship music from Samuel Bella, Rebecca Linton, and Volney Morgan & New Ye! Plus, the studio welcomes Bible teachers including Emmanuel Adeseko, Juanita Francis, Julian Morgan, and Rhona Tackie.

Prepare to be blessed as the week's teaching of the Word focuses on unity, peace, hope, liberation, and transformation.

Declaration is presented by Tearfund and their powerful initiative The Well. Tearfund is committed to working with churches to see an end to extreme global poverty and injustice. The Well works specifically with Black majority churches and Christians of African and Caribbean heritage to tackle these important issues.

Highlights of 2022

It was an amazing, exciting, and eventful year for TBNUK. Let's take a look at our highlights, many of which can be watched On Demand at watch.tbn.uk.

We saw the return of in-person events! Soaking up the summer at Big Church Festival and creating this 20-episode series was such a highlight of 2022.

Celebrating 50 years of Graham Kendrick's contribution to worship music resulted in our most watched programme online.

Our partnership with incredible charities is part of the lifeblood of TBNUK. In 2022 we made fantastic programmes with Open Doors, Compassion UK, Mercy Ships, Tearfund, the Billy Graham Evangelistic Association, and many more.

We won!

TBNUK was voted 'media platform of the year' at the Step FWD awards for the second year running. Plus we got to chat with amazing guests on the red carpet!

We recorded masses of music videos and live performances, in studio and across the UK. Check out the playlists on our YouTube TBNUK Music channel for contemporary worship, classic hymns, and award-winning vocals.

TBNUK favourites, Michael Youssef and RT Kendall, reflected on Dr Youssef's 10 years of ministry in the UK.

The team is so grateful for your continued support and wish you all a happy new year!

A Fresh Vision for TBNUK

GRAHAM

Some family news! Towards the end of 2022 I was honoured to take over from Richard Fleming as Chief Executive Officer of TBNUK.

You'll be as glad as I am to know that Richard is still very much involved in everything we do as he remains CEO of Governance Ministries (the charity of which TBNUK is a division). Since TBNUK launched in 2015, Richard has established it as the leading broadcast Christian TV channel in the UK with the widest reach. TBNUK has been operating 24/7 ever since – even through a pandemic! This means we've reached many people who stumbled upon the channel 'by accident'. People who might never attend a church service, or those who are grieving, oppressed, or isolated have discovered the freedom of Jesus' message, simply because we were present. Every testimony we've received over the past eight years has only served to increase our resolve: to bring the love of Jesus into every home through media & entertainment.

Since TBNUK's conception, our challenge has always been: how can we sustain the faithful broadcast of the gospel of Christ on the airwaves in our country? The annual cost of airing on Freeview and Sky is around £3.5 million – and that's before any programme making or staff costs!

Today a significant disruption to the broadcast industry is well underway with global viewership trending towards digital, device-based, and anytime viewing. Even BBC officials have announced the future closure of linear broadcast channels as they attempt to transition their media empire to the digital-first world! So as we enter 2023, the landscape is very different to that from 2015. We hope to remain a presence on broadcast TV, while receiving fresh vision for our community online.

As we have prayed through our future together, God gave us this word:

Forget the former things; do not dwell on the past. See, I am doing a new thing! Now it springs up; do you not perceive it? I am making a way in the wilderness and streams in the wasteland.

 Isaiah 43:18-19 (NIV)

This is incredibly exciting! For some time we've felt that a fresh move of God is coming, even as the world seems to become darker around us. God willing, we will continue to produce Spirit-led, Gospel-centred, and trustworthy content for a world that sorely needs it. To quote our recent ad campaign: we're producing TV that feeds the soul.

Will you join with me in thanking Richard for all he has done in furthering the gospel in our nation through his faithful command of TBNUK, and also join us as we pray for the future of TBNUK, remembering that it is the Lord who establishes our steps. (Proverbs 16:9)

Blessings,
Graham Ormiston
CEO, TBNUK
